Description: Owner/Operator of a successful appliance and repair business with great repeat customer base is looking to transition out. This strong revenue business is AI proof as well as being an essential (not discretionary) sector.

There is no real estate involved in the sale as it currently operates out of 1000 square foot leased facility giving the new owner the opportunity to relocate as desired.

Perfect opportunity for an individual to start on their own with a built in customer base or an established business to grow by acquisition and/or diversify the services they offer clients. Seller would consider working with new owner to ensure a successful launch.
